

Please do not lessen the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. My husband and I each work and our waking hours at home are about 2 a day. We used to receive 10+ calls upon arriving home from work while trying to prepare dinner, etc. We had never made a purchase from a telemarketer. We now only receive maybe 1 a week. It has greatly reduced stress for us in the evenings. Respectfully submitted.